

Filmadine

Superfating teat dip based on natural molecule

MILKING

- 1 Before
- 2 During
- 3 After / Après
Después
- 4 In between

Advantages of FILMADINE

- Disinfectant bactericidal
- Powerful cosmetic power

- Teat protection

The components of the product prevent the drying of teat. FILMADINE is recommended for damaged teats. It contains a skin softener.

- Teat disinfection

FILMADINE contains a natural molecule, lactic acid which has a bactericidal disinfectant action (EN 1656).

FILMADINE is a super fatted reference.

- Direction for use

Ready to use AFTER milking. Can be used all year.
FILMADINE is the cosmetic reference for post-dipping.

- Main components of FILMADINE

Disinfectant molecule of natural origin (lactic acid).

Surfactants, wetting, softening, emollient, mild detergent.

Active ingredients : Lactic acid 8% (express in p/p).

Disinfectants are regulatory biocides. They have guarantees of efficiency and protection of human, animals and the environment.
Use biocides safely. Before use read the label and product information.